

I am in the shop
of Price's being my Vol VIII. It will cost us £ of 630
per set.

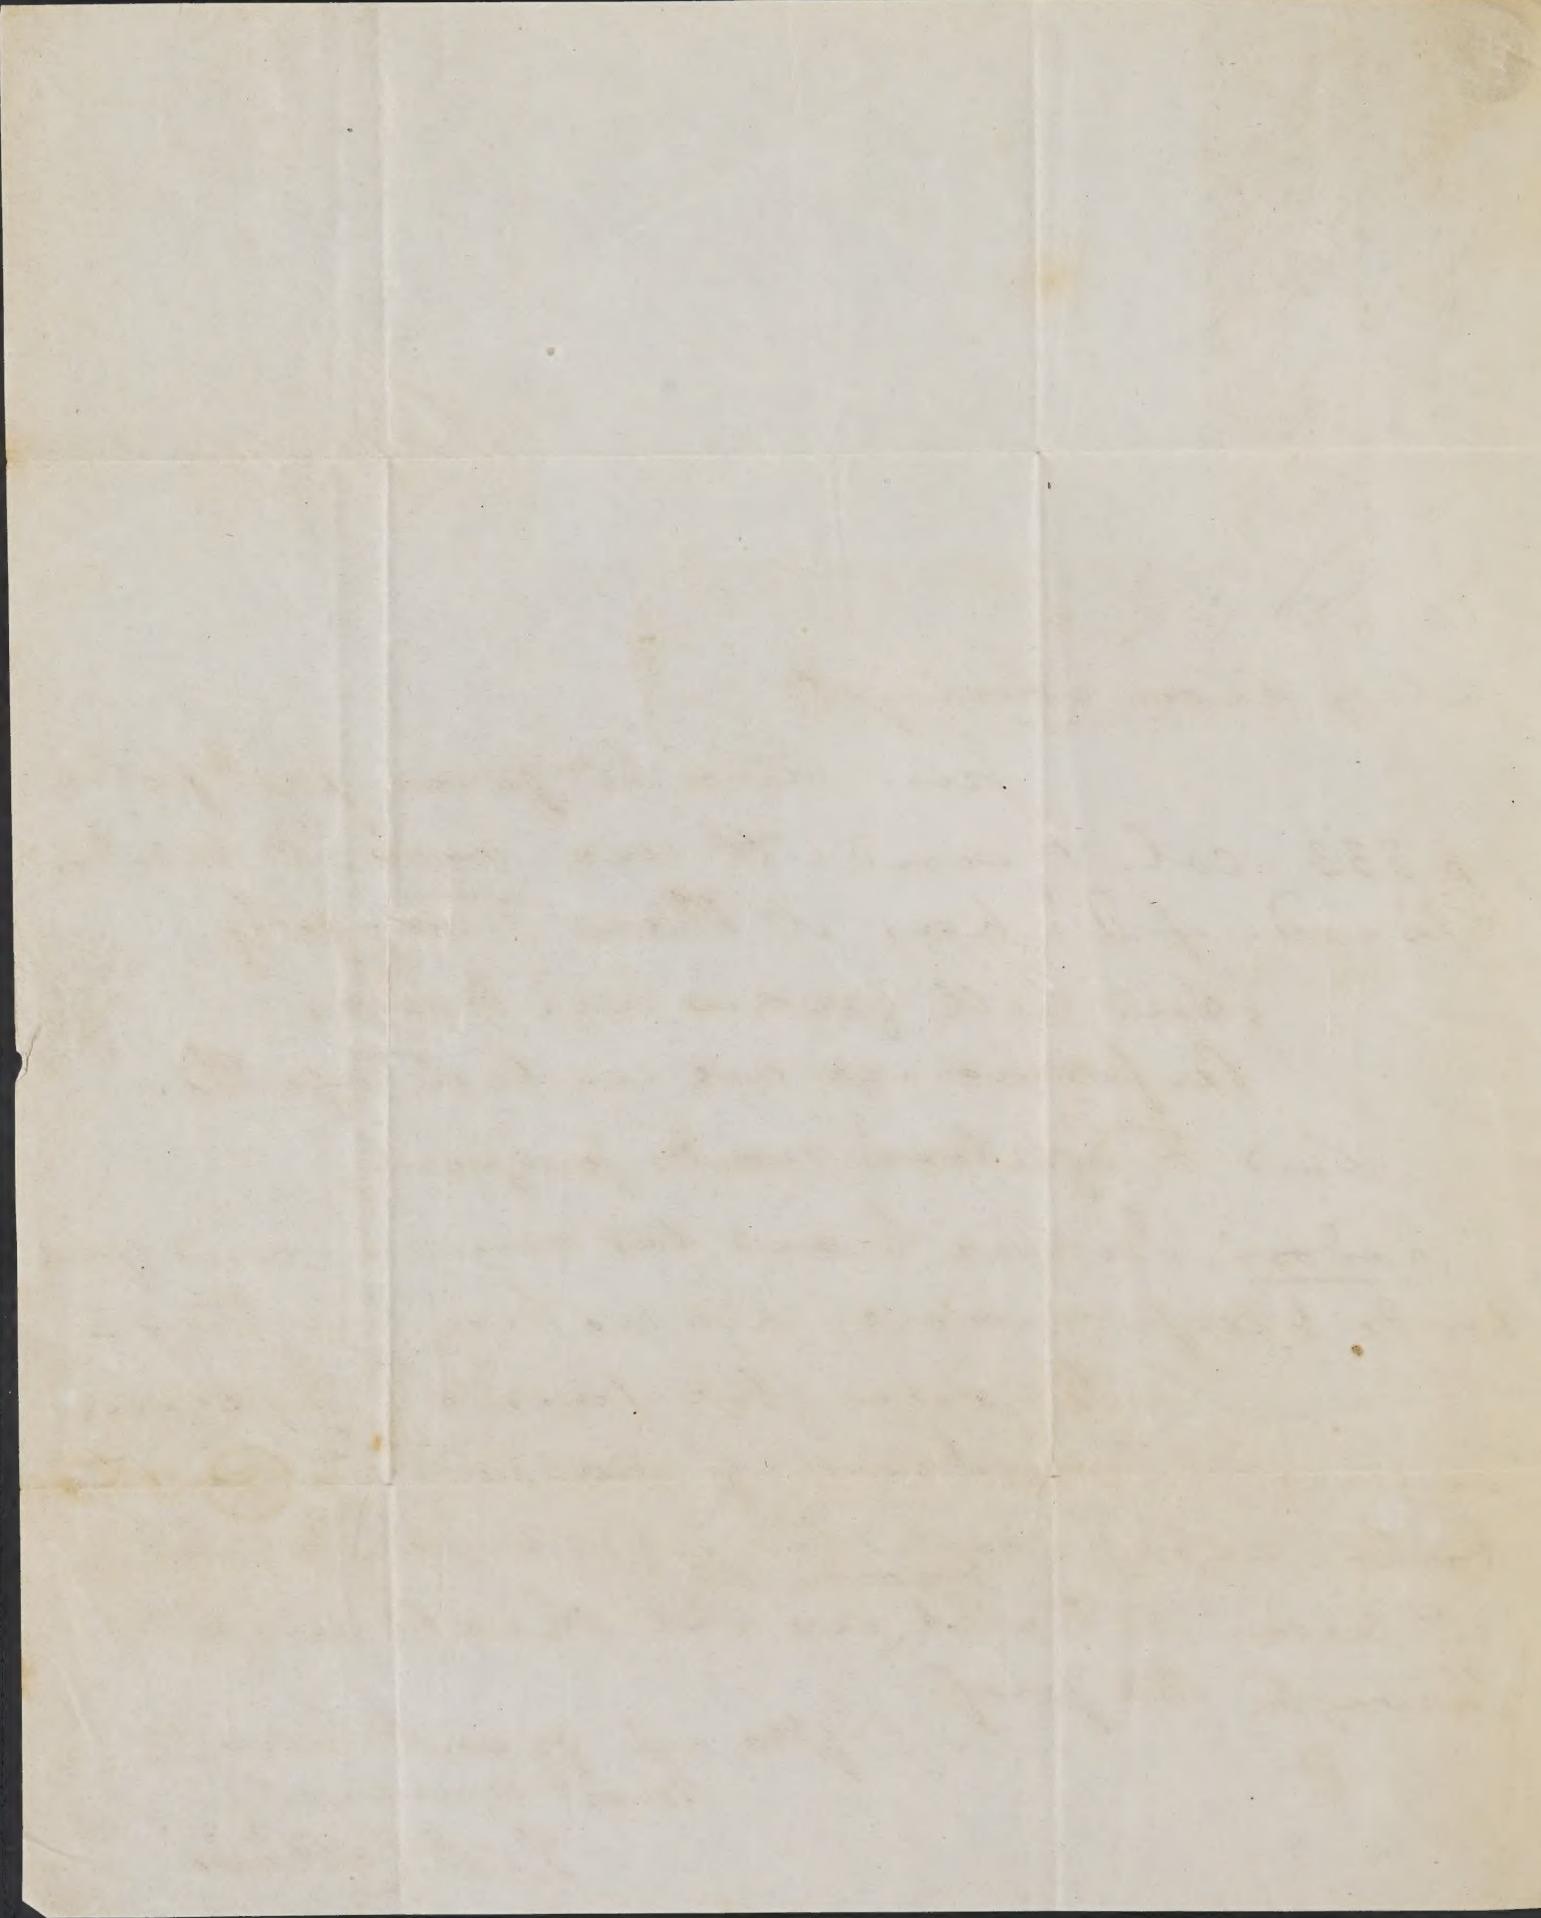

Times Reporter etc.
Librarian Date of issue Author D of

My dear Autyot

Just turn to your first folio p 333 col. 1 and tell me how it reads.
The D. of D's has it thus strangely
"And hell gnaw his bones Performance are no kin together".

Said F. Egerton reads properly "Rodori. I have heard too much: and your words & performance are no kin together"

Is yours the same? It seems a most extraordinary variation in the Dukes copy, corrected afterward when it was detected, as the sheets went through the press. Yrs in great haste most sincerely
J. P. Collier

EXCELSIOR LIBRARY 1914

LONDON PAID
I.D. PAID

Thomas Drayton Lector
13 James Street
Brockenhurst

